KING GEORGE SEES BEHAN SYNDICATE IS OUT OF THE GAME

Ruler of the British Gives Cordial Welcome to Members of Great American Teams on Chelsea Field.

EXHIBITION IN LONDON NOTABLE OCCASION.

(By Leased Wire to Evening Herald.)

London, Feb. 24.—Three hearty American cheers and a tiger was the welcome given by the baseball team to King George on his arrival today on the Chelsea football ground to witness the game between the New York and Chicago teams.

The players were grouped immediately in front of the royal box and the rattle of the batteries immensely pleased the royal sportsman, who repeatedly bowed his acknowledgment.

The King was accompanied by Walter Hines Page, United States ambassador, and the full staff of the American embassy, as well as a large suite of court officials.

The ambassador introduced Charles A. Comiskey, John J. McGraw, John Farrelly, and James J. Callahan, all of whom the king shook hands.

The members of the American colony made the occasion a holiday and were present in great force among the thirty thousand spectators.

All branches of British sports were well represented. Many of the leading cricket and football players were on the ground taking keen notice of all the points of the game.

The Earl of Lonsdale and Baron Desborough, both prominent in sporting circles, were among the many titled personages surrounding the king. The crowd was greatly amused while awaiting the arrival of the king by the entry of one of the Chicago team.

During practice the boy went to bat and made a home run through the affected slackness of New York players.

The result: R. H. E.

Chicago . . . . . 3 8 0
New York . . . . . 4 3 4

The game went eleven innings. Daly, the first man up in the eleventh inning, won for Chicago with a home run.

At the end of the ninth inning the score was tied, 2 and 2. In the first half of the tenth the New York team got a lead of two runs. This was neutralized in the second half by Outfielder Crawford, who knocked a home run and brought in a man from second.

In the eleventh inning, the New York batters went out one, two, three. Then came Daly's home run.

LEVY SAYS IT'S TIME FOR BOXING GAME TO OPEN UP

Promoter Back from Lengthy Stay in Santa Fe, Proposes to Furnish Fans Some Fun Right Away.

Mark Levy is back from Santa Fe for a little visit at home. Mark has been sojourning in the higher atmosphere for about a month and finds it is time to get down to a lower altitude. He says, also, that it is time for the boxing game to open up in Albuquerque and to the end of opening, has arranged a class program of bouts for about the 6th of March in Elks' theater. If his present program is carried out, Levy will give one of the most interesting cards we have had in these parts for sometime, and he seems quite sure of his material at this writing.

In the mean time Mark has arranged to give the Santa Fe fans a little show next week, when he will match Young Rivera with some of his club pupils and will present some new material which he has discovered in Santa Fe.

SMAULDING SHOULD HAVE WON.

Levy says that Al Smaulding should have won a decision in his fight with Jack Herrick in Silver City last night, and although the newspaper decision overruled the draw given by the referee, Levy says it is plain to see that the colored boy had all the best of the bout. Smaulding is expected in Albuquerque tonight or tomorrow morning and Levy is planning to match him for his March program here.

FANS' FAVORITE TO MEET TORRES HERE

Little Harry Riede, favorite of all the local fans—and one of the gameliest youngsters that ever stepped into a local ring, is to meet Jack Torres if that worthy is willing, is the latest statement from Mark Levy's field headquarters. Riede, who fights under the name of Johnny Murphy, gave 12 pounds to Eddie Gregory in a 20-round mill here two years ago, and also faced Henry Chavez and Young Abe Attell for a like period. Both times he gave a good account of himself. In the Chavez fight, especially, though outclassed, he showed great gameness. Riede is currently tough Stanley Yankum a draw at present.

Murphy agreed to meet Torres on condition that the winner be given a chance to fight Tommy O'Rourke of Santa Fe. O'Rourke had signified his willingness for the encounter.

Within a week Young Rivera of Santa Fe will meet some opponent yet to be selected by Director Levy. Young Joe Rivers, Jack Carson and Young Patsy Kline are candidates for the mill.
